Current Sermon Series

Many traditions make Christmas memorable. There are so many sights, smells, and tastes that instantly bring up feelings and memories in us: that one special ornament, the scent of the fresh-cut tree, the taste of that one desert that is only made in December. But more powerful than any of those are the sounds, specifically the songs of Christmas. Nothing makes it feel more like Christmas than the hymns, songs, and carols we know and love. This makes perfect sense when you realize that songs have literally been a part of Christmas from the beginning. This year, for our Christmas sermon series, we will study the songs of Christmas recorded in the book of Luke and celebrate again the glorious birth of our Savior.
